

Market Comparisons in Global Foreign Exchange and Global Fixed Income

May 12, 2014

Executive Summary:

FX and fixed-income markets are both changing, but that is where the similarities end. Greenwich Associates research shows that buy-side demands and regulations impacting sell-side business models continue to create a divergent path for these two critical asset classes.

Methodology:

This report provides detailed information on global foreign exchange and fixed-income investing. Research is based on responses from 1,584 global foreign exchange investors and 4,000 global fixed-income investors in 2013.
